"To know wisdom and instruction;
To discern the words of understanding;
To give subtlety to the simple;
To give knowledge and discretion to the young that the old may hear and increase in learning;
To understand a proverb and a figure;
To understand the words of the wise and their dark sayings:"
We the class of 1970 present this yearbook
As a symbol of past joy and of future promise.

Dedication

Mr. Renato Paolini

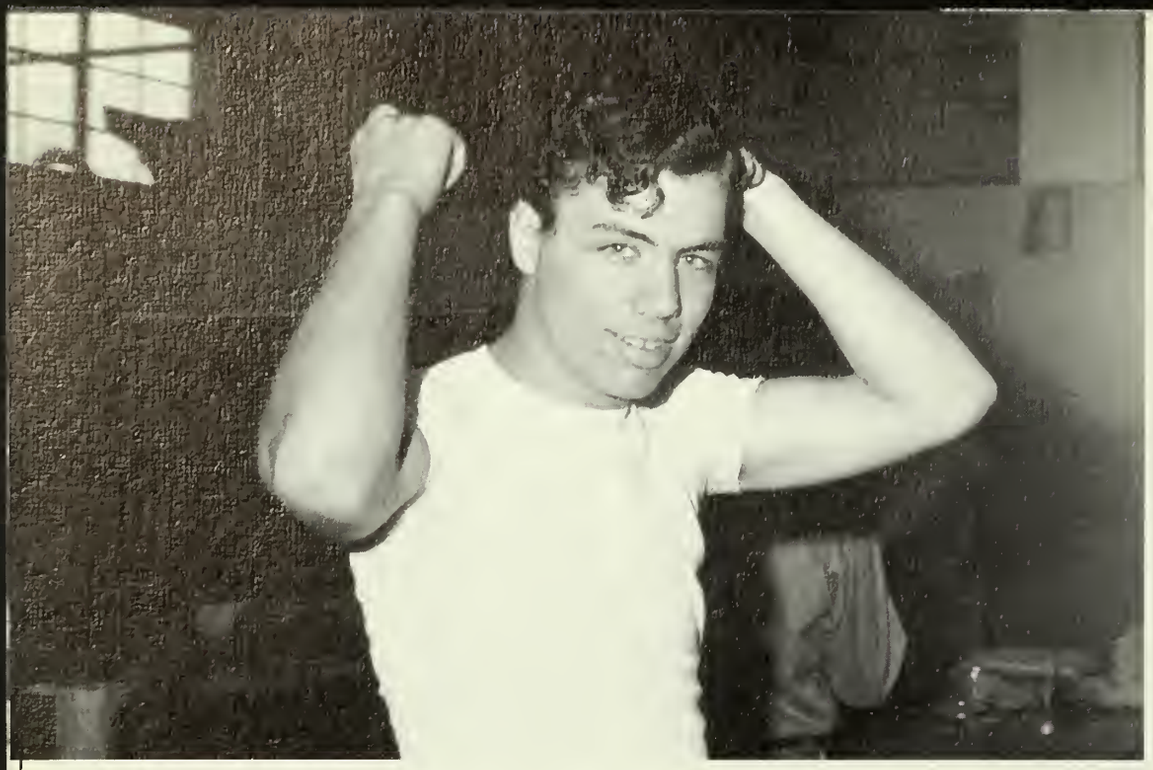

"Charity is patient, is kind, charity does not envy, is not pretentious, is not haughty, is not ambitious, is not self-seeking, but rejoices with the truth, bears with all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things."

To dedicate: "to address to a friend as a mark of affection, respect or gratitude."

When we remember Mr. Paolini we think of hot stuffy periods in the shop room, terrifying moments at the Registry, and friendly "Hi's" in the corridor. He has taught more of us how to drive than any other person, and, as we know, at the same time risked his life. His outward gruffness can never mask his inner warmth and concern for everyone, and his cheerful teasing never fails to bring a smile from the most depressed person. We have never met a person who does not like Mr. Paolini, and it's a safe bet that there is no one whom he doesn't like, either. Thank you, Mr. P. for your years of "dedication" to us. We hope our future driving, shop work and sense of humor will be a tribute to you.
